Adaptive Leadership and Immunity to Change

Leadership is about mobilizing ourselves and others to address our most difficult issues and challenge the status quo. It requires experimentation, improvisation, and a deeper understanding of the forces keeping us stuck. On four Thursdays in the new year we will gather online to unearth the competing interests that keep us from making progress on our deepest concerns and collectively generate potential experiments for moving forward.

Jan 16, Feb 13, March 20, April 10
2-4 pm

Workshops are for pastors and ministry leaders. Prior participation in Adaptive Church Project is not required. Contact jen@peakspresbytery.org for more info.
